Peter, Paul and Mary's Noel Paul Stookey headlines 10th anniversary Revels RiverSing, a free, open-air celebration of the Autumnal Equinox along the Charles River in Cambridge

Join us for a magical night of music, song and celebration as Revels bids farewell to summer and welcomes in the fall along the banks of the Charles River in Cambridge. This year marks RiverSing's 10th anniversary and includes family festivities in Harvard Square, a puppet-filled parade to the Charles that all can join, and communal singing, music, and more along the parklands by the Weeks Bridge.

Helping us celebrate this special anniversary is guest performer Noel Paul Stookey of Peter, Paul & Mary plus the Revels Singers, sax great Stan Strickland, a great folk band, guest soloists, Actors' Shakespeare Project, Cambridge Poet Populist Lo Galluccio, acrobats and street performers from Moonship Productions, Sara Peatie's Puppeteers Cooperative, a fabulous "honk" band, and the magical, larger-than-life butterflies of Gabriel Q. Revels music director George Emlen leads the festivities. Patrick Swanson is Artistic Director.

At the Charles, we'll sing familiar folksongs (lyrics will be available online at www.revels.org and at the event), enjoy seasonal poetry, at evening's end, the most magical moment of all, an improvisational call-and-response from jazz great Stan Strickland aboard an illuminated Sun/Moon boat floating along the Charles.

Timeline:

5:00pm: Gather in Winthrop Park for family festivities including face-painting, hula-hooping, a "honk" band and more!

5:45pm: Parade to the River (all join)

6:00pm: The singing along the Charles begins!

Come early and enjoy a picnic along the River amidst the splendor of the Parklands!
